Photo Release Letter

Dear Parent,

SAEINDIA with support from Top Automobile Companies and their suppliers along with the other sponsors, have teamed up to provide your child with an exciting design experience. This challenge is called the “A World in Motion[®]” Olympics. Your child will take on the role of an engineer and will work with other students designing a toy that meets a specific set of requirements.

SAEINDIA along with the Sponsoring companies would like to share this experience with the rest of the community.

SAEINDIA along with the Sponsoring companies request your permission to use the photos taken at this event, which may include a picture of your child, in community newspapers, websites and for other SAEINDIA publicity.

Request your permission.

Please sign and date this letter and have your child return this letter to their teacher.

Thank you,

Ganesh Adiga
